I Hear You Calling Me.

I hear you calling me.

You called me when the moon had veiled her light,
Before I went from you into the night;
I came,—do you remember?—back to you
For one last kiss beneath the kind stars' light.

I hear you calling me.

And oh, the ringing gladness of your voice!
The words that made my longing heart rejoice
You spoke,—do you remember?—and my heart
Still hears the distant music of your voice.

I hear you calling me.

Though years have stretched their weary length between,
And on your grave the mossy grass is green:
I stand,—do you behold me?—listening here,
Hearing your voice through all the years between.

HAROLD HARFORD.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into three systems. The first system shows the vocal melody starting with a rest, followed by the lyrics 'I hear you call - ing me.' The piano accompaniment begins with a forte (f) dynamic and includes markings for 'rit.' (ritardando), 'p' (piano), 'a tempo', and 'molto rit.' (molto ritardando). The second system continues the vocal melody with 'You call'd me when the moon had veil'd her light, Be -' and the piano accompaniment with a forte (f) dynamic. The third system concludes the phrase with 'fore I went from you in - to the night, I came, ..... do you re -' and features a piano accompaniment with a forte (f) dynamic and a 'rit.' marking.

II Love

"A Single Man"—A characteristic "John Drew proposal"; this time to his astonished secretary, a part extremely well acted by Miss Mary Boland

"The Woman"—The difficulties of courting "Central" when she is on duty; here's a proposal punctuated by calls for ice-water, the hotel valet, and the correct time

ST LOVE-SCENES

Cannot Live Without Each Other

Another love-scene from the successful Scotch comedy, "Bunny Potts the Stringer." "Fessie Dunlop" shy and retiring though she is, is just burning up w' love for ruggish "Rab Biggar," "Bunny's" young brother

"Dinner"—The most charming love-scenes of this satisfying historical comedy show "Dinner" (Mr. George Arliss) paying a wonderful tribute of tender, unflinching affection to his devoted and lovely wife
